Maxwell goes to bat for council budget

Tania Maxwell, Derryn Hinch's Justice Party Member for Northern Victoria, has sought state government help for Towong Shire Council to recoup the costs of clearing local roads of ground-slips and debris caused by last year's bushfires.

Last week, she asked Local Government Minister, Shaun Leane, in Parliament to alleviate what have become unsustainable, on-going costs for the council to keep these roads open.

"As we know, plants and tree roots help to bind the ground," Ms Maxwell told the Legislative Council, "and after bushfire these footings are severely compromised.

"Subsequent rain softens the ground and increases the likelihood of run-off and landslides, which will recur for years as the land recovers.

"Towong Shire Council has taken responsibility for numerous clean-ups of debris across its local roads but cannot claim the impact of landslides and run-off as a cost resulting from last year's bushfire event.

"Many roads are affected and the council's operating budget simply cannot sustain this cost for years to come.

"I asked the Minister what funding supports are available to support Towong Shire in dealing with the ongoing costs of clearing their roads of run-off while their landscape recovers and restabilises from the bushfires."

She said the Minister is expected to answer her enquiry by May 18.

Government wants to shoot first

Member for Benambra Bill Tilley has given the Victorian Labor government 177,000 reasons to stop the planned shooting of wild horses on the High Plains.

Last week on the steps of Parliament, Mr Tilley - along with Opposition Leader, Michael O'Brien; Nationals Leader Peter Walsh and colleagues - accepted a petition signed by 177,000 people calling for a halt to the shooting and the creation of laws that protect the brumby from eradication.

Mr Tilley said people are outraged at the plan by Parks Victoria to double down on ground and aerial shooting of horses with plans to kill all horses at Falls Creek and 500 a year in the eastern Alps.

"The number of people willing to give up their day to be at this rally along with the 177,000 people who signed this petition are the tip of the iceberg," Mr Tilley said.

"We can show the science is flawed - the counts and the blame for damage.

"I have attempted to find a compromise with the government on so many of these issues but rather than listen to us they want to start shooting indiscriminately.

"Incredibly, they are now on the record as saying shooting is humane but mustering and roping horses, that has been a high-country tradition for close to 200 years, is unsafe.

"They can't guarantee a kill shot from the ground let alone a helicopter."

Mr Tilley said there were greater threats to the Alpine flora and fauna.

"What we are seeing here is lazy policy, low hanging fruit - picking off horses that are the descendants of those noble animals that took our World War I troops into battle rather than dealing with more significant threats," he said.

"For every horse in the high plains there are more than 300 deer.

"Increasingly, I'm hearing pigs are becoming a significant factor and so this plan would shoot the horses and leave the carcasses for them and the wild dogs.

"It's bloody-minded ideology aimed at winning over inner city environmentalists - winning Labor seats from the Greens rather than looking at the facts."

Minister for the Environment Lily D'Ambrosio declined an invitation to the rally.

Farm riverfront campers should be registered for safety

The Victorian Farmers Federation (VFF) has delivered its submission to the Victorian government's proposed Regulated Watercourse Land Regulations and a major focus was the need for the introduction of a registration system.

"Without a means to trace when campers arrive on a property and where they go, both farmers and the authorities will have no way knowing exactly where they have been and for how long," said VFF president, Emma Germano.

"The government has already created an app that we think should include a registration function.

"Under the proposed rules farmers will not be able to meet the traceability requirements under biosecurity quality assurance systems.

"We're calling for a simple, easy to use registration system to be introduced to ensure a level of accountability from campers and easier enforcement of rules by authorities when issues arise.

The VFF also harbours concerns about the damage the process has inflicted to the Landcare partnership formed between farmers and the government.

"The VFF played a pivotal role in forming Landcare in the 1980s that has since dedicated an enormous amount of time improving Victoria's riparian environments," Ms Germano said.

"There's little doubt that poor consultation from government and the failure to listen to the concerns of landholders has seriously damaged this relationship."

OPEN LETTER TO THE UPPER MURRAY COMMUNITY

May 12th, 2021

Dear Corryong and Upper Murray Parents, Families, and Community Members

Re: Responding to Suicide of Young People in our Community

As you may know our communities have been profoundly saddened by a number of suicide deaths. Our heartfelt thoughts and sympathy extend to the bereaved families and friends.

Losing someone to suicide is difficult and complex for any family or community.

We are writing this letter to convey a number of important messages across our town and broader community:

- Services and agencies in Corryong and the Upper Murray have and are committed to promoting and improving the wellbeing and safety of young people, adults, and communities, and continue to do this critical work.
- To this end, an Upper Murray Postvention (Interventions after suicide event) Plan has been drafted by local and regional services to coordinate an effective response; reduce future risks; and strengthen local postvention and prevention systems. The draft plan is open for community feedback and available at www.corryonghealth.org.au
- A Local Response Group has been activated since Monday 3rd May 2021 to support those directly affected and coordinate immediate responses.
- The recent impact has been profound for the entire region and has affected multiple schools, thousands of families and young people, places of work, and community groups
- Every layer of government, Local, State, and Commonwealth are aware of the impact in our area and we are supporting Victorian and National agencies to work in partnership with our local agencies and suicide prevention groups
- All stakeholders are being activated including community services, education sectors, police, health, bereavement services, hospitals, local council, and other critical agencies
- Please know that every agency and sector is working behind the scenes to monitor risk, reduce risk, promote help seeking, connect people to services, and communicate helpful information.
- Key local & regional providers will be offering opportunities to talk, get training, and improve awareness across the community
- Key local & regional providers will also look to address the accessibility and priority of referrals to services for individuals, children, family, and young people.
- It is important that we all work together as parents/carers, families, and friends, and services to play a pivotal role in building resilience, promoting help seeking, and connecting with each other.
- Dr Rob Gordon Clinical Psychologist and expert in recovering from traumatic incidents will be in Corryong on Wednesday 19th May 2021 and Thursday 20th May 2021 to talk to parents; teachers and the broader community in separate sessions. Community members are invited 7:00pm Wednesday 19th May 2021 in the Corryong & District Memorial Hall, Hanson Street, Corryong. Dinner will be provided.

This intensive approach will continue to enhance access to strategies and ongoing supports locally.

Sailor makes museum connection

A Coastal Patrol officer who served on a restored boat involved in a successful operation against enemy ships during WWII, recently visited the Man From Snowy River Museum in Corryong where the raid is immortalised in a display.

The teak fishing boat named Krait was used in 1943 by Z Force, a joint Allied Special Forces unit, to ferry a 14-strong company of British and Australian army and naval personnel which carried out a daring commando night raid on shipping in the Singapore Roads, damaging seven Japanese warships.

Following the war, Krait was bought by a British sawmiller for the Borneo timber trade and renamed Pedang (Sword). In the late 1950s two Australians recognised the boat while on a business trip and a public appeal followed and the Krait Trust Fund was formed to purchase the vessel and return it to Australia - which it did successfully in 1964.

That was when Ian Hart

Ian Hart (left) presented museum secretary, Stewart Ross, with mementos of the Krait.

(76) began a 10-year stint as a 2nd Lieutenant, Royal Volunteer Coastal Patrol on the Krait which was used for patrols, search and rescue operations, boating courses and school visits.

It was transferred to the Australian War Memorial in 1985 but put in the care of the Sydney Maritime Museum to maintain and display until 1988, when it was loaned to the Australian National Maritime Museum which has managed the display, maintenance and restoration of MV Krait since that time.

The original nameplate of the Krait arrived in Corryong in 1945 in possession of Tom Mitchell of Towong Hill, who had been released from Changi prisoner-of-war camp in Singapore when the war ended.

The nameplate was the catalyst for the Krait display in the museum.

During his visit, Mr Hart also donated several items of memorabilia items which will be included in the Krait display.

He said that the Krait had been the only floating war memorial in the world before it was taken from the water and mounted on blocks in Darling Harbour.

Festival showcased indigenous services

The recent Man from Snowy River Bush Festival brought the community together once again to celebrate Corryong's proud bush traditions and heritage and this year, it included an acknowledgement of the region's traditional owners.

Their connection to land, waters and culture has continued for more than 40,000 years and through the work of skilled Aboriginal stockmen and women with exceptional knowledge of and connection to the land, the Jaitmatang, Ngarigo, Dhudoroa and Walgalu peoples have contributed significantly to the Snowy Mountain region's pastoral industry.

Joining a number of other local groups at the bush festival, Victorian Aboriginal Child Care Agency (VACCA), highlighted the ongoing contributions of Aboriginal people and culture in the region by hosting cultural craft activities including basket weaving, jewellery making and boomerang art. As Victoria's largest Aboriginal child and family welfare organisation, VACCA has committed to protecting and promoting the rights of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children and families for more than 40 years.

Festival-goers were invited to contribute to the flag mosaic.

It's work in Corryong has included providing bushfire recovery services to support community members impacted by the 2019/2020 bushfires.

In the spirit of respect and reconciliation, visitors to the VACCA marquee at the festival were invited to contribute to the creation of a large Aboriginal flag mosaic which will be gifted to the Corryong Visitor Information Centre once complete.

Symbolising the community coming together to recognise and celebrate Corryong's traditional owners, the artwork's presence at the heart of the town will represent an ongoing commitment to reconciliation and healing.

If you are interested in learning more about VACCA and their programs and services, visit www.vacca.org or contact your local VACCA office on (03) 5756 9000.

Tumba bids for top town title

Public voting is now open to elect Tumbarumba as the top town in NSW.

Tumbarumba is one of just 25 on the short list for the inaugural NSW Top Tourism Town Awards in the towns with less than 5,000 people category.

Snowy Valleys
Council (SVC) nominated
Tumbarumba to the NSW
Tourism Industry Council in a bid to showcase the town as a tourism destination worthy of celebrating.

Council's Executive Director Community and Corporate, Paul Holton, said the awards were an opportunity to shine a light on the whole region and encouraged the public to get behind the town as a holiday destination.

"We are very proud of the Visit Snowy Valleys brand and that Tumbarumba and the region are being increasingly recognised as a destination of choice, with a variety of activities on offer," he said.

Towns across NSW were invited to nominate themselves and were required to submit an inspiring editorial, a three-or four-day itinerary, an image gallery and a video to support their nomination, which were then formally judged by a panel of 12 leading tourism experts.

Mr Holton said
Council's Place Activation Team worked on the submission and even though Tumbarumba was the nominated town, the video and itinerary demonstrate that the town can be used as a base to access the wider Snowy Valleys region.

"Our submission focused on outdoor activities including the Tumbarumba to Rosewood Rail Trail and local food and beverage offerings,"
Mr Holton said.

The public vote in the awards will count for 50 per cent of the final tally and the judges vote for the other 50 per cent. The winners will be announced at the Local Government
NSW Destination
& Visitor Economy
Conference on Thursday 27 May, 2021 and will then represent NSW at the Australian Top Tourism
Awards later this year.

To vote visit: [www.
businessnsw.com/top-tourism-town-awards](http://www.businessnsw.com/top-tourism-town-awards).

Road work on Alpine Way from 19 Apr to 30 June

The NSW Government is funding essential maintenance work to provide a stronger, longer lasting and safer road.

Transport for NSW will carry out two slope rehabilitation works on a section of MR677 Alpine Way to provide a stronger road and a smoother ride for motorists. Work will be carried out on a one kilometre section 6.5km south of Khancoban NSW.

How will the work affect you?

The work will involve the use of machinery which generates some noise. We will make every effort to minimise noise by arranging the work in stages at different locations.

Any impact to access to property owners will be contacted and traffic controllers will be in place to guide road users through the work zone.

Traffic changes

There will be some temporary traffic changes to ensure the work zone is safe.

Lane closures and a 40 km/h speed limit will be in place during work hours and may affect travel times. Motorists should allow up to five minutes extra travel time during this work.

Motorists are advised of changed traffic conditions on Alpine Way 6.5km south of Khancoban for two slopes rehabilitation works.

Single lane closures will be in place. Works to be carried out between 8am and 5pm on Monday to Friday and 8am to 1pm on Saturdays, weather permitting.

Traffic control and reduced speed limits of 40 km/h will be in place for the safety of workers and motorists.

Motorists are advised to drive to the conditions, allow up to five minutes extra travel time and, follow the directions of signs and traffic control.

Transport for NSW thanks motorists for their patience during this time.
For the latest traffic updates download the Live Traffic NSW App, visit

Upper Murray Sport

Federal notes continued from page 16: Harry M played well in defence with Michael. Joe, Paddie and Leo shared the ball well between them in the forward line.

Special mention to Nixon on his first goal and welcome to our new boys Connor and Chad.

Awards: Urbana graze - Nixon, Canteen award - Flynn.

Netball

Under 11s: An excellent game by the girls who are all starting to understand the rules of netball and learning about the positions they are playing in. Our defence did a great job never giving up and the midcourt taking some good intercepts. Neve Creswell scored two goals and Immy Tyrell received the Federal top, Aywen Urquhart received the canteen award and Neve Creswell received the Urban Graze award. Final score was 2-23.

Under 15s: The team gelled and played well together reading the play and getting in position. Jorja and Paige both top scored with 11 each and resting in the fourth quarter, Cassie dominated in GD all game, intercepting and turning over the ball. Tess handled each position she played at both ends of the court, displaying some classic 'Amy skills. In the last quarter Maddie and Pippa finished in the goals on 4 and 2 respectively. This game was a joy to watch, keep up the good work. Get better soon Holly. The final score was 28-3 Feds way. Awards: Maddie McKimmie: Rebel Voucher, Quinn Galbraith: Urban Graze.

D Grade: Feds started off strongly against Tumba defending the goals and getting rebound passes out and down the court as fast as possible with Mariah shooting a goal in the first quarter. In the second quarter Tumba came out flying with the goals being scored fast but that didn't stop Feds defending with Rochelle stopping the ball at every chance she had. Cassie scored 2 goals and Mariah scored another one. A great game played by all with the final score being 4-35 and Tumba taking the win. Awards this week went to Fluer Urquhart - $15 Jacks Store voucher; Ally Boers - $20 club cash.

C Grade: Another good game to watch with the whole team being defensive down the court. Cassie dominated with many intercepts and Paige continued to lead well throughout the game. Maddie worked well in goals where she took away the award this week with Cassie. The final score was 15-39 with Tumba taking the win, however for those watching the game you would not have thought this was a final score as Feds gave it there all. Well done ladies.

B Grade: Some new and returning faces to Feds for this game with Jo Nicholas and Georgia Watson pulling on the uniform. All ladies worked well together as a team, ensuring the crowd had a good game to watch! Georgia dominated in her first game and received the $20 club cash award. Claud Byrne showed her versatility and skill and was awarded with the $15 Jacks Store award. B grade coach Lauren never gave up and was on fire this game, therefore receiving the Tess and Lil award. Final score was Feds 29- Tumba 43.

A Grade: Another hard fight for our ladies this week who never gave up. Tiarnae and Rachel worked well together again in goals, and Bridget and Marissa gave it their all in defence. Jemma and Oriane were stellar in mid court, always available to receive passes and defend. Both ladies received awards this week, and the final score was 47 Feds to 65 Tumba.

Blues News

made their shooters really work hard. A big thank you to Amy Greenhill for stepping up and playing for us in defence.

Awards: Angie Reiners, Izzy Cottrell, Hayley McCallum and Amy Greenhill.

D Grade: The girls had a very tough game against Bullioh who had good all round defence and had to work extremely hard during the fast paced game. Our mid court players took intercepts and remained tight but unfortunately Bullioh come out on top 24-26.

Awards: Amy Lockwood, Amy Greenhill and the mug went to Malkara Farrell who worked extremely hard in defence.

U15s: We had an awesome win against Bullioh 41-10!

As a coach I was so proud and the girls as a whole team should be so proud of how they performed and the way in which they showcased their skills.

Gemma and Sarah in defence made such a tremendous impact, turning over many balls and putting the shooters under a lot of pressure.

Brooke Tregilgas was on fire! She played with so much confidence and agility and together, Emily Samwells and Brooke absolutely dominated Bullioh defence.

The centre court were very level headed, very settled and extremely quick, working together creating space for one another and controlling the ball better than I've ever seen them do so.

Amy Greenhill was our most versatile player, being shifted around from defence to shooter allowing the girls to rotate. Amy can slot in anywhere needed and make a huge impact.

All in all the result was very impressive.

U11s: The girls are starting to work really well as a team with Pippa Faithfull having a great game in WA running to the space and using her voice to call for the ball. Olivia Nagy has shown great improvement in WD sticking to her player and intercepting the oppositions passes. Taylor Turnbull takes every position in her stride playing GK, C and GS.

Well done kids, another fantastic week of netball.

Blues take early bragging rights

Cudgewa's playing depth came to the fore against Bullioh on Saturday when challenged by Bullioh in the top-of-the-table clash.

The Blues were without key forwards Kylin Morey and Luke Bloom who dominated the previous week with twenty and four goals respectively but up stepped Ben Hall and Dayne Carey to fill the gap with nine majors between them.

In a high scoring first quarter, Bullioh held sway at the first break by seven points and when the margin was extended to 22 points by half time, the Blues unbeaten start to the season was in jeopardy.

Co-coach, Kelvin Wallace, was leading the way for the Dogs with his attack on the ball and Kieran Salome, Max Nicolson and Luke Welsh were following suit in the clinches.

Cudgewa flexed its muscle in the third term with Jay Dale, Mitch Pynappels and Jake Vinge getting off the chain to hit up Hall and Carey in attack to reel the deficit into five points at the last break.

The Blues started the final quarter well to establish a slight lead which they maintained throughout the tense run to the line, eventually holding on by eight points.

Tumbarumba had an easier time of it in the other match against Federals after an eight-goal blitz in the first quarter.

The Roos were pinpointing sharpshooter, Daniel Hitchens, who ended with a tally of nine goals to go with the 11 majors he booted last week.

With Flynn De Bono, Jack Vogan and Mitchell De Luca controlling general play, the Roos added another nine goals in the second period to establish an 82-point lead at the long break.

An element of complacency may have been a factor in the Swans rallying in the third quarter to outscore Tumba, with big men Ash Tyrell and Ash Tyrell prominent in the resurgence, however it was a small blip as the Roos powered away for a 118-point victory.

In A grade netball, Cudgewa retained top spot on the ladder with a comfortable 14-goal win over Bullioh with twin spearheads, Anna Beirs (34) and Sophie Greenhill (18), dominating in the offensive arc.

Tumbarumba sits in second place after skipping away in the second half against Feds for an 18-goal victory.

This week

Corryong hosts Cudgewa this Saturday in a real test for the Demons in their finals quest. The Blues are sitting 3-0 and their all round depth will get the job done.

Bullioh's performances have been inconsistent but at home the Dogs will have too much firepower for the Swans to overcome.
