Reach out for help

On Sunday another of our local young people, aged 17, took their own life.

This tragic event underscores the importance of a total community response and a co-ordinated plan to recognise the immediate impacts on family and community members.

The way a person feels following a suicide can be intense, confusing and often overwhelming. There may be a wide range of emotions and thoughts that are difficult to understand and to manage but there are several support services available to help deal with the impact.

Over the past 12 months, many local organisations, including Corryong Health, have been working on an Upper Murray Suicide Prevention Plan.

This draft plan is currently open for community consultation and feedback. It is available online at www.corryonghealth.org.au/get-involved.

Following this latest tragedy, the draft plan has been enacted with the establishment of a local response group which includes Victoria Police, Corryong Health, Ambulance Victoria, the principals of local schools affected, Albury Wodonga Health mental health and Headspace, local faith groups, Snowy Hydro and representatives of the bereaved family.

The group is inviting any interested community members to attend an information session on suicide bereavement and grief on Tuesday 11th May at either 1pm or 5pm at the Memorial Hall, Corryong.

This session will be led by the Rural Outreach Team (Albury Wodonga Mental Health).

New event funded

Locals and visitors will be welcomed to Khancoban this spring with a Long Lunch Event thanks to a successful grant application by Snowy Valleys Council (SVC).

It has received $27,000 in funding under the Commonwealth government's Regional Tourism Bushfire Recovery Grants to host the lunch event.

Executive Director and Corporate, Paul Holton, said hosting a Long Lunch event would encourage visitors to Khancoban during spring and help to showcase the town's beauty, unique location, and the beautiful regional produce on offer.

"We are very pleased to have been successful with this grant application that will enable us to showcase Khancoban during its best season and bring increased visitation to the town," said Mr Holton.

Khancoban has seen some exciting projects come to fruition over the

Changed traffic conditions on Alpine Way

Motorists are advised of changed traffic conditions this month on Alpine Way, near Khancoban, for essential repairs.

Work is being carried out to repair two slopes, 6.5 kilometres south of Khancoban on the Alpine Way, to provide motorists with a safer road.

Repairs are being carried out on a one-kilometre section from 8am to 5pm on weekdays and from 8am to 1pm on Saturdays, until the end of June, weather permitting.

Single lane closures, traffic control and reduced speed limits of 40 km/h will be in place for the safety of workers and motorists during the project.

Outside of work hours traffic lights will be in place to guide motorists through lane closures in the work zone.

Motorists are advised to allow up to five minutes extra travel time.

Local students can name tunnel borer

Snowy Hydro is calling on all year 5-12 school students in the Snowy Mountains area to join in the competition to name two new tunnel boring machines (TBMs).

Before the imposing machines start digging the Snowy 2.0 tunnels, they need to have names and students in the Snowy Monaro and Snowy Valleys council areas and Corryong district are being asked to come up with their best science, technology, engineering and mathematics (STEM) related suggestions as part of the TBM Naming Competition.

There are two TBMs to be named, with the first Snowy 2.0 machine already titled the Lady Eileen Hudson, in honour of the original Snowy Scheme ambassador and wife of inaugural Commissioner, Sir William Hudson.

TBMs are always given female names, a tradition stemming from the 1600s when miners working underground prayed to Saint Barbara for protection.

To be a part of the Snowy 2.0 Tunnel Boring Machine Naming Competition, students should nominate a ground-breaking or inspiring Australian woman in STEM and explain their choice in 200 words or less. The students whose shortlisted names gain the most public votes are the winners.

Snowy Hydro managing director and CEO, Paul Broad, said the competition was a fun way to spark children's interest in STEM fields.

"We see our local kids as the future - the next generation of engineers, scientists and innovators at Snowy Hydro," Mr Broad said.

"Snowy 2.0 is a nationally-important infrastructure and engineering project right here in the Snowy Mountains, so the chance to name one of our massive, 11-metre tunnel boring machines is an exciting opportunity."

To enter the competition, local students in years 5-12 should complete the entry form on the snowyhydro.com.au website by 11.59pm Sunday 23 May, 2021.

The two most popular names, as voted by the public, will be used to identify the TBMs and the students who nominated them will receive a visit to the Snowy 2.0 construction site to see a TBM before it goes underground.

Snowy puts safety first

Snowy Hydro and Driving Solutions have united to once again present the 2021 Young Driver Program with hundreds of students from seven local schools participating.

The Snowy Hydro Young Driver Program, which kicked off in Corryong this week, is a hands-on approach to driver training specifically designed to prepare Learner and Provisional drivers in the Snowy Mountains for the driving conditions they face on the region's roads.

"The program has been running for 20 years and continues to demonstrate our commitment to the safety and well-being of young people living in the Snowy Mountains," said Snowy Hydro CEO, Paul Broad.

Under the guidance of professional and experienced instructors from Driving Solutions, students drive current model vehicles while participating in exercises that teach emergency braking, control of understeer and oversteer, and allow students to feel the effects of vehicle safety features such as ABS and stability control.

They experience stopping on low-friction surfaces and learn techniques to improve their steering and vision.

Students are also taught about driving conditions unique to the Snowy Mountains such as snow, ice and wildlife, as well as the dangers of driving under the influence of drugs and alcohol.

Since its inception in 2002, the Snowy Hydro Young Driver Program has provided more than 1,400 local students with the opportunity to improve their driving skills and become safer drivers.

After running a reduced program due to Covid-19 in 2020, the 2021 program is fully booked, with close to 250 students planning to attend.

"Snowy Hydro is proud to support and invest in initiatives which made a positive impact among the local community," Mr Broad said.

"We've been a part of this region for decades and we are committed to supporting youth, education for locals and the highest safety principles. This is reflected in the value we place in the annual Young Driver Program."

This year the Snowy Hydro Young Driver Program coincides with National Road Safety Week (May 16-23), which it is hoped will further emphasise the importance of road safety in regional communities including the Snowy Mountains.

"With this year's program being held in the lead up to, and during National Road Safety Week, we aim to bring to life those important messages around road safety and raise more awareness about the risks that regional communities like the Snowy Mountains face when driving on the roads," said James Stewart, Director of Driving Solutions.

"Young Drivers in rural areas face unique driving conditions compared to their city counterparts, so it's very important that these young people have the opportunity to learn valuable driving skills in a safe and controlled environment, before potentially having to test out their ability for the first time in a real life emergency scenario."

"The Snowy Hydro Young Driver program helps students gain the skills they need to stay safe on the road, and we know that the training we deliver makes a positive difference to their attitude and behaviour behind the wheel," said Mr Stewart.

Careers on offer

Snowy Hydro will be holding a community drop-in session at its Discovery Centre in Cooma this Saturday 8 May for Year 12 students considering a traineeship, their families and prospective apprentices.

The session, which runs from 9am to 11am, complements the school presentations conducted throughout the Snowy Mountains region and provides additional opportunities for the community to learn more about Snowy Hydro's annual apprentice and trainee intake.

Applications for a 2022 Snowy Hydro traineeship or apprenticeship are open now. Visit <https://www.snowyhydro.com.au/entry-level-programs/> and apply by Friday 28 May.

Foodie gets back to his roots

It started with the promise of super cheap chicken wings and turned into a nation-wide search for the most impressive culinary feats regional Australia has to offer.

Food lover Alo Baker, who spent his early years at Tooma, has eaten his way around regional areas across the country and is now sharing his discoveries in the new series The Food Dude, which is now airing on 7mate.

The Dubbo-based Triple M radio announcer said the idea for the series came a few years ago when he got a tip about a small eatery on the Gold Coast selling chicken wings for 15 cents a pop.

"I was so impressed by what they'd put in front of me that I filmed a few clips on my iPhone and posted it on social media," Baker told news.com.au.

"Within minutes it had thousands of views and I realised, hey – people love food!" he said, joking "I hadn't realised that's what 90 per cent of Instagram was at the time."

After catapulting the 15c wings into instant popularity – the eatery struggled to keep up with demand – Baker turned his attention to another local restaurant specialising in American-style burgers and shared that on social media as well, quickly realising how much Australians craved ideas and advice on the best places to eat.

"Before I knew it I was punching out videos on social media getting hundreds of thousands of views across South East Queensland," he said.

Around this time Baker was working on another series called Aussie Dreamlivers, in which he and a couple of mates embarked on a wild adventure through the North American wilderness.

When he got back to Australia, he got to work on the idea of an Australian food series that would showcase regional success stories and all the incredible culinary wonders in lesser known parts of the country.

Filming was challenging due to Covid-19 and travel restrictions meant many of the first places he visited were in NSW and Queensland, though he's managed to venture further out since.

And he's made some incredible food discoveries along the way.

"I discovered Shannon Nolls' favourite pie from his local childhood pastry tastery the Condo Bakery in Condobolin in western NSW – which is also haunted," Baker said.

"I also discovered, after indulging too much on chocolate fudge and ice-cream, you shouldn't go on a dolphin cruise in Jervis Bay – especially if you are prone to sea sickness!

"I found a two-metre pizza at Criniti's in Newcastle, a huge Tomahawk steak in Junee and judged pies at Quinneys Pies on the Gold Coast, among a stack of other things."

Some of the most memorable moments for Baker came during a visit to the Upper Murray where he saw how regional areas have struggled over 2020.

"The region was smashed by the bushfires and then again by Covid," he said.

"I actually came home to help with the fires at the time and those local businesses got hit hard so being able to show off what they're capable of was a real privilege for me.

"But the general vibe from businesses affected by the fires and then Covid – from the Snowy Valleys to the NSW south coast – is that despite everything, they want people to know they're still there and pushing out the best of the best in food offerings."

Baker filmed a segment at Macca's Takeaway in Corryong, reminiscing on eating there growing up but encouraging people to come to town for tourism after the fires

"These businesses are powering forward, kicking goals and making world class food that deserves its place in the spotlight," he said.

"From a pie shop in Rutherglen, Victoria to a Mexican food van in Townsville, these places are the local heroes in our regional towns and that is why The Food Dude exists."

During his regional travels Baker tested his nerve with some epic food challenges, often with hilarious results.

He encounters some truly monstrous meals, such as a 2.5kg chicken parmigiana, platter-sized Tomahawk steak, two-metre pizzas, 3kg burgers and "massive shank challenges the size of a family roast".

With Australians taking regional holidays as much as ever right now, and with quality food to experience almost everywhere, Baker's advice for travellers was to simply "pull a map out and randomly pick a spot."

"Even the bakeries are changing with the times and are offering gourmet items you'd never realise were made in the old faithful pastry shop," he said. Small business is fighting back and pushing out stuff you won't see anywhere else."

The Corryong segment will air on the show on 7Mate/7Flix next week at 3:30pm Fridays, 1:30pm Saturdays and 11:30am Sundays (7Flix) or anytime on 7Plus.

GREEN, Eunice May - Mum, I can't believe I am saying goodbye to you, it's not how I wanted it to be.

I will miss your smile, your laugh and you growling at me when I wasn't doing as I was told. I will miss going out for coffee and our Albury shopping trips.

The most important thing to me was making sure your last years were fun and happy. I hope I did my job.

Amy and Kira will miss Nanny Eunice every day, especially our girls' days out.

Thank you for being the best Nan and for being 'My Mum'. I love you and wish I could have said goodbye. Forever and always in my heart. Rest in Peace.

DEATHS

GREEN, Eunice May - Passed away on May 2nd, 2021.

Mum/Nan,

Your contagious laugh, your love for good coffee, things that sparkle, your dogs, your family, having your hair and nails done, a biscuit with your tea.

You raised your family, you took in others, your worked your bum off and nothing could ever stop you. You lost and loved your best friend such a short time ago and you were so brave through it all.

We are not ready to say goodbye but it brings us joy through knowing you will be by Pop's side again.

We are grateful for the memories and laughs we all shared, especially the short time with Lukey.

Mum/Nan rest in peace now. Love always.

~ Manns, Cindy, Sharlee, Tanika, Adam and Lukey (and your beloved dog Jess).

GREEN, Eunice (nee Button) - Passed peacefully in her sleep on May 2nd, 2021.

Sadly we say goodbye to our very dearly loved friend Eunice.

She was a wonderful friend, always there for us, always sharing, always kind. Her door was always open.

We are going to miss you so much after nearly 60 years of friendship.

Thanks for the cuppa, see you later.

Bye with love from Raine, Bobby, Sonya, Dianne and Clinton and families.

Letters to the Editor

The rail trail tale

I caught the V/Line from Melbourne with my bike specifically to spend a week doing the High Country Rail Trail to Cudgewa. I had a wonderful ride and even enjoyed the hill (both ways!).

I would like to praise all those involved in its restoration. I got lost on the undeveloped section down to Cudgewa but stayed at Corryong with some wonderful weather.

I think the High Country Rail Trail is one of Victoria's best kept secrets but I will recommend it to all my cycling friends so I will be back.

~ Robert Irvine.

The grapevine

The Uniting Church held a successful seminar last weekend with presenters Jenny Byrnes and Mel Perkins from Melbourne and all those attending found it very worthwhile. Note: The service on May 23rd, which is being taken by Fred Jungwirth, will be starting at 11am. Members of the Wodonga Uniting Church are attending for the service and lunch.

Tuesday night badminton is starting soon - contact Wayne on 02 6077 1201 for details.

Debutantes double up

The 80th Anglican Debutante Ball on Saturday night was a larger affair than usual as the 2020 group, which missed out because of Covid-19 last year, was included with the 2021 cohort.

The theme was 'Diamonds and Pearls' and the debs and their partners were presented to the Bishop of Wangaratta, the Right Rev Clarence Bester and his wife Michelle. Also in the official party was Canon Alan Kelb, accompanied by his wife Lee.

The 2020 debs announced by Josie Miller were presented then performed their dance to the music of 'Diamonds and Pearls'. The 2020 debs and partners were Malkara Farrell and Sam Harrison, Maddi Miller and Jimmy Whiteley, Neva Attree and Harley Middleton, Kristy Whitehead and Zac Nugent, Rachel Paton and Ethan Learmonth, Sean Cai Malenab and Jack McLean, Oriane

Hunt and Ashton Kurnof, Ella Scammell and Kyle Jarvis.

The 2021 Debs then proceeded down the hall to the official party - Mae Mouat and Tyler Humphrey, Georgie Butler and George McKimmie, Ruby Ritchie and Jack Daly, Jemma Klippel and Dylan Wheeler, Hayley McCallum and Ben Hewatt, Talara Edwards and Hugh Saxon, Chloe Morley and Lachlan Davidson, Mikayla Harrison and Jake Lattanzio.

The debs and partners, trained by Rev Mitch Porter, performed their second dance to the music of 'Diamonds on the Water'.

The Junior Debs were Myla Tight and Jax Johnstone, Daisy Edwards and Brady Nicholas.

"We thank Towong Shire for an 'event grant' that helped in the recovery and celebration of the ball," said All Saints secretary, Fay Whitehead.

"Thanks must go to many other people who helped make this yearly event happen - Kim Van Dijk and her team including her daughter Mikayla for decorations and general help in making this ball so successful. The Arch of Balloons on the stage was stunning as was the glowing 80 at the back of the stage.

"Thank you to Sandra Benton for her planning of this 80th ball as well as her commitment to the event over many years as trainer, committee member and general organiser.

"There are many other people and organisations that work hard behind the scenes and we thank them all including Gail Spink, Ilma Clarke, Janet Nicholas, Marie Harris, Sylvia Montgomery, Errol Obran, Adele Miles, the CNC, staff at Corryong College, Rotary, Towong Shire, Corryong Football Netball Club, the Memorial Hall and RSL committees as well as Jackie Whitehead for such a beautiful cake.

"A big thanks must also go to our photography team of Jasmine Pierce and Darcy Bly for their coverage of the evening. We all look forward to great photographic memories for us to enjoy in the future.

"There will be a new group organising the 81st Anglican Ball next year and we wish them well and hope that they are able to operate under normal conditions."

Upper Murray Sport

Cudgewa FNC notes continued from page 12: They surprised themselves by having some fun along the way as well!

Super proud fill-in coach this week.

Awards: Isobel, Zoe, Ruby Jean.

U11s: The team had a loss this week but that didn't stop them from giving it their all. Federals having a tall side meant our kids had to work hard to get the ball around them. Ava Dakin played so well with having a strong defender. Logan Nagy showed some great potential in the ring and Charlotte Klippel played a great game in WA.

Football

Seniors: The senior side started strongly with 10 first quarter goals and never looked back, kicking a further 31 goals for the game. Kylin Morey was superb with 20 goals to his name and was well supported by Dayne Carey, Luke Bloom, Jake Vinge, Joe Bone and Jayden Pryse.

U14s: The boys were outclassed by a taller, stronger Federal team this week.

Riley Bloom was outstanding, kicking a goal and racking up numerous possessions. Isaac Nicholas was moved into the ruck after quarter time and competed well. Corby Russell played well in a shutdown roll across halfback and was well supported by Brock Hamilton, Darby Whitehead and Jack Jarvis.

U11s: The team had a great win with everyone playing well. The team showed good determination, team spirit and sportsmanship, reaping the rewards of their consistent training. Special mentions to Mac Brindley, Amy Costello, Declan Faithful and Ryder Pierce.

Tumbarumbas Helle Southwell denied gravity during the B grade match against Corryong on Saturday.

Swans Nest

Football

Seniors Awards: Mug Joel Bailey; Khancoban Alpine Inn $50 Josh Jarvis; FFNC Club $20 Haydn Cook; FFNC Club Hat Ash Greenhill.

Netball

Under 11: A great game in the sunshine with brilliant teamwork. Feds came out with the win 8-6.

Feds had great defensive pressure and showed skill bringing the ball down the court.

A big congratulations to Lila Mason, Imogen Tyrell and Belle McVean on shooting their first goals. Awards: CC Paton: Canteen, Billie Galbraith: Urban Graze, Tilly Sandilands: $20 club voucher.

Under 15: It was a good game to watch with both teams fairly equal in scoring until Cudgewa broke away in the last quarter to seal the win with a total of 15 to Federals 10.

Tess Paton intercepted quiet a few passes, turning these over and turning them into goals.

Paige McKimmie top scored with 5 for the game, dominating when she had the ball in the 2 quarters she played.

Jorja McInnes was next with 4, playing ¾ of the game.

Holly Butler was on fire as GK and GD, blocking lots of passes and creating turnovers.

The team played well together, talking and encouraging each other. Fabulous effort, bring on next week. Awards: Cassie Heaphy: Urban Graze, Pippa Galbraith: Federals shirt, Lexi Galbraith: netball socks.

D Grade: Round 3 at Cudgewa was a game with a team to be reckoned with. Cudgewa put up a fight every quarter and although the final score was 49-6 Cudgewa way, the Federal Swans didn't go down without a fight.

Sandra Kovacic worked hard scoring 5 goals throughout the game, with Rochelle Sandilands scoring 1 goal.

Ally Boers defended the goals well, working hard to stop as many goals we could. Coach awards went to Sandra Kovacic and Chloe McInnes. Overall a great game played by both teams.

C Grade: A hard day in the heat against a strong Cudgewa side. Feds played well and had fun as a team.

Lots of position changes and chances for players to try new things. Cudgewa come out on top with a score of 30 to Feds 12, however a great job by the ladies. Awards went to Mia Saxon and Karly McVean.

B Grade: A very warm game for our B Graders. It was great to see the return of Isobel Norman who gave it her all in goals with Paige McKimmie and Amanda Sheather and for our President Elise Wilson pulling back on the dress in WA.

Mon Luna De Deigo showed versatility playing in goals and centre and then Amy Paton, Paula Heaphy, Lauren Tyrell, Kelsey Lupson and Marissa O'Callahan giving it their all in defence.

Final score was Cudgewa 52 to Feds 32. Awards: Tess and Lil voucher: Paula Heaphy, Netball Socks: Elise Wilson.

A Grade: The heat didn't settle once A grade commenced, with the whole team giving 100% but Cudgewa were just too strong scoring 85 goals to Feds 39.

Our attack and defence never gave up and continued to apply pressure to their opponents with a fairly even third quarter. When our shooters Rachel Hansford, Tiarnee Hunt and Isobel Normal received the ball they rarely missed. Top job ladies. Awards: Wolf and Wood Pack: Jemma

Pearce, Netball Socks: Rachel Hansford.

With the Bias

Wednesday bowls is continuing - all are welcome to play. Names in by 12.30 for a 1pm start.

Last week's winners were Murray Carkeek, Fred Gray and Hume Whitehead.

Last Tuesday, eight members travelled to Eskdale to play in the Mitta Valley Bowls Club's Pairs tournament. Noel Blake and Lesley Evans were runners-up and all players came home with something - Neville and Ilma Clarke and Stewart and Catherine Ross won minor prizes and Doug and Cheryl Smedley won a raffle!

Next season, getting out and going to tournaments is something we must do more of. They're good fun and a great way to meet more bowlers.

We'll keep the bowls going on Wednesdays for as long as we can - keep rolling!

Mental health support for the Upper Murray

Over the last 15 months I pressured the Government to deliver its promise of $500,000 for mental health funding for the Upper Murray. This week it delivered.

The mental health impacts from the bushfire were huge. There's no excuse for the delay. Finally the Upper Murray will get support it needs.

Blues run riot in 41-goal rout

Cudgewa went on a scoring rampage against a severely depleted Federal's side on Saturday, with the mammoth 251-point victory signifying that the Blues will be the yardstick for the competition.

The Swans were held scoreless for three quarters in the one-sided contest and most interest centred on the number of goals Blues' spearhead Kylin Morey could amass, starting with six in the first term and a total of 20 majors for the match.

The question was raised as to whether this was an individual record but big bags of goals were regularly scored against Tumarumba in its early days in the league in the 1970s, with Cudgewa players Merv Ward and John Chitty booting more than 20 majors against the Roos on two occasions.

The Blues had winners all over the arena and their forwards capitalised on the silver service of Dayne Carey, Riley Petts and Mitch Brown to kick at least 10 goals in each quarter on their way to a percentage boosting win. Joel Bailey, Josh Jarvis and Ash Greenhill were prominent for Feds.

Corryong's team had also been hit by absences and injuries but took the game right up to Tumarumba in the other match on Saturday.

The Nicholas brothers, Evan and Thomas, made the opposition work hard for every kick while Jayden Downs and PJ Jeffries kept the clamps on the Roos' dangerous forwards to still be in the hunt at the main break.

Tumarumba snapped into gear in the third quarter and piled on eight goals to three, mainly through the agency of sharpshooter, Daniel Hitchens, who finished with a game-high 11 majors.

With an empty bench, the Demonss options were few and the Roos capitalised to run away with a 69-point victory.

This week The feature match this week will be the top-of-the-table clash between Cudgewa and Bullioh and if the Blues field a similar side to last week's, the Dogs will have trouble containing their powerful attack.

The Swans will be a different proposition this week against Tumarumba but the Roos are in fine fettle and should get the four points.

Bullioh has the bye.

Demonic Den

Football
Seniors: With a few key outs and early game injuries, it threatened to be a long and hot afternoon watching Tumarumba's impressive midfield work rate and crafty forwards do what they do best.

However, our boys dug in and got to work. We tried to grind it out as long as we could, slowing their spread and locking the ball in our half when we could.

Jayden Downs was prolific around the stoppages in his first game for the season, narrowly taking best on ground honours from Peter Jeffries, whose aerial contest work in the backline was exceptional.

The Nicholas brothers were again the grunt that got us going, along with Matt Findlay and his relentless tackling pressure.

Isaac Schlunke had his best game and was in everything. The Roos kicked away late but with no rotations left it was a gutsy effort to fight it out for as long as we did.

Awards: Woolhouse Albury - Isaac Schlunke; Little Bug Massage Khancoban - Thomas Nicholas; Astor Hotel Albury - Peter Jeffries; Jeffries Family Mug - Jayden Downs.

Reserves: We were solid across all areas as our developing side produced another strong performance to get the win.

Pierre Wall continued his great form across the half back line, Jack Daley was dangerous up forward and the on ball brigade, led by Kriss Butt and Tom Saunders, spread well from the contest.

Blues News

Netball

A Grade: It was a fantastic win over Feds on our home turf. The defensive circle welcomed Taylah who slotted in like she had been playing there forever. Everyone was very supportive of each other and played a fantastic game. Well done!

Awards: Sophie Greenhill, Taylah Gerecke, Anna Beirs.

B Grade: The girls came out firing in the heat, taking away the win. Both Lil and Pip were unstoppable in the goals supported by Lizzy and Kristen who both had fantastic games. The girls in defence put up a tough wall for Feds to get through turning over a lot of balls. Everyone showed a lot of determination running it out until the end, particularly the last 5 mins.

Awards: Lizzy Star, Lillian Fair, Kristen Ross, Trin Byatt.

D Grade: We had an awesome win over Federals. The team showed great sportsmanship and determination.

The girls set a target at the start of fourth quarter to reach 50 goals and started the last quarter with 38 goals, ending the game with 49 goals that were shot between Brooke Tregilgas and Amy Greenhill.

U15s: The girls went in with a focus on making space and driving, and they aced it! We had some amazing work in both rings by our defenders and shooters providing some great rebounds for the team.

Centre court showed some great space and some super intercepts!
